

Rüdiger Landes

University of Oklahoma, USA

Remarks on the regularity of elliptic systems

Although many questions about the regularity of weak solution for elliptic systems have been settled in the last decades of last century, open problems still exist, in particular for the degenerate case. We will discuss some of these questions. Our main concern will be the question of whether it is possible to obtain everywhere continuous solutions for quasilinear systems with natural growth, under the corresponding conditions which provide continuity in the nondegenerate case.